EDUCATION (SCOTLAND).

MINUTE of the COMMITTEE of COUNCIL on EDUCATION in SCOTLAND, dated 21st November 1919, amending the Regulations for the Preliminary Education, Training and Certification of Teachers for Various Grades of Schools.

At Dover House, Whitehall, the 21st day of November 1919.

BY THE LORDS OF THE COMMITTEE OF HIS MAJESTY'S MOST HONOURABLE PRIVY COUNCIL ON EDUCATION IN SCOTLAND.

Read—

Regulations for the Preliminary Education, Training, and Certification of Teachers for various Grades of Schools, 1915, as amended by Minutes of 19th April, 1916, and 31st May, 1918.

Resolved—

1. That Articles 30, 60, 63, 67-70, and 76 (a) of the said Regulations be modified to read as follows:—

Fees. Training Authorities may remit fees and give bursaries or allowances.

Article 30.—Training Authorities shall charge fees for the courses of instruction which they provide or for each year of such courses, according to a scale approved by the Department as suitable, but they may, on good cause being shown, remit the fee (in whole or in part) in the case of individual Students in full training for the Teacher's Certificate or in training under Article 32 (a) who were admitted to training before 1st January 1920.* They may further make payment to such individual Students of such bursaries or maintenance allowances as after due enquiry they may deem necessary.

Grants in respect of

Article 60.—There shall be paid to Training Authorities in respect of every Student in full training for the Teacher's Certificate (including persons in training under Article 32 (a) under their charge who, whether in receipt of a bursary or maintenance allowance or not, has signed a declaration signifying that he intends bonâ fide to adopt and follow the profession of teacher in schools which are eligible for annual grants from * Note.—Students admitted to training after 31st December, 1919, should apply to the Education Authority of the district in which they reside for any assistance they may require. See Section 4, Subsections (1) and (3) of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1918.

5. 1. 1920

the Department or in such other schools as may be recognised by the Department for the purpose, and who has been in continuous training* throughout the year, the following grants :—

|  |   |   |   |
|--|---|---|---|
| In respect of the year 1919-20                         | - | - | 40 l. (men) and35 l. (women). |
| In respect of the year 1920-21                         | - | - | 27 l. 10 s. (menand women).   |
| In respect of the year 1921-22 andsubsequent years | - | - | 20 l. (men andwomen).                |

But not more than four such annual grants shall be paid in respect of any one Student.

This sum may be increased in the case of Students admitted to training before 1st January 1920, by 15*l.* (men) and 13*l.* (women) in respect of any Student resident in a residential College or in an approved Hostel.

Except as provided for in Article 63 in the case of the Provincial Committees, the sum of the foregoing grants to any Training Authority may be reduced by its excess over the net approved expenditure of the said Training Authority in the year in respect of which the grants are made.

Article 63.—Any surplus shown by the accounts of the Provincial Committees shall be held by the Committees to be applied by them towards the improvement of the means of training within their district, in accordance with proposals approved by the Department, and any deficit in the accounts of the said Committees up to the 31st July 1920, arising from expenditure approved by the Department shall be made good or may be obviated by a contribution from the Education Scotland Fund (Section 16 (1) (d) of Education (Scotland) Act, 1908).

Disposal of surplus.

Deficit to be met from Education (Scotland)
Fund.

Articles 67 to 70. (Except as regards existing Pupil Teachers, these Articles shall cease to have effect.)

Article 76 (a). (Lapsed Article.)

2. That pursuant to Subsection (2) of Section 33 of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1918, the Scottish Education Department do hereby appoint the 1st day of November 1920 as the appointed day for the purposes of Subsection (2) of Section 32, so far as relates to paragraph 5 (d) of the Fifth Schedule.

* In special circumstances the Department may, if they think fit, pay proportionate grants in respect of students who have been in training during part of the year only.

the Department or in such other schools as may be recognized by the Department for the purpose and who has been in continuous training throughout the year, the following

In respect of the year 1918-19 - 401.5 (men) and 337.5 (women)
 In respect of the year 1919-20 - 371.1 (men)
 and 317.5 (women)

 250.0 (women)

It is noted that the total number of students admitted to any one school
 This sum may be determined in the case of students admitted to training before 1st January 1920, by 15% (men) and 12% (women) in respect of any student resident in a residential College or in an approved Hostel.
 Except as provided for in Article 63 in the case of the Provincial Councils, the grant of the following amounts to any Training Authority may be retained by the excess over the sum expended on any of the said Training Authorities in the year in respect of the said grants.

At Article 63 - Any surplus shown by the accounts of the Provincial Councils shall be held by the Councils to be applied by them towards the improvement of the means of training within their district in accordance with proposals approved by the Department and any deficit in the accounts of the said Councils up to the 31st July 1920, arising from expenditure approved by the Department shall be made good or be continued by a contribution from the Education Grant Fund (Section 10(1) of Education (Scotland) Act, 1909).

At Article 64 - Any surplus in respect of the year 1918-19

shall be held by the Councils to be applied by them towards the improvement of the means of training within their district in accordance with proposals approved by the Department and any deficit in the accounts of the said Councils up to the 31st July 1920, arising from expenditure approved by the Department shall be made good or be continued by a contribution from the Education Grant Fund (Section 10(1) of Education (Scotland) Act, 1909).

At Article 65 - Any surplus in respect of the year 1919-20 shall be held by the Councils to be applied by them towards the improvement of the means of training within their district in accordance with proposals approved by the Department and any deficit in the accounts of the said Councils up to the 31st July 1920, arising from expenditure approved by the Department shall be made good or be continued by a contribution from the Education Grant Fund (Section 10(1) of Education (Scotland) Act, 1909).

At Article 66 - Any surplus in respect of the year 1920-21 shall be held by the Councils to be applied by them towards the improvement of the means of training within their district in accordance with proposals approved by the Department and any deficit in the accounts of the said Councils up to the 31st July 1920, arising from expenditure approved by the Department shall be made good or be continued by a contribution from the Education Grant Fund (Section 10(1) of Education (Scotland) Act, 1909).
